COMPETITION RULES & REGULATIONS

1. JUDGING

Participants will be judged by their legitimate hold-touch point; height reached by dynamic means is allowed. Should more than one individual reached the same height in the finals, a super finals will be held to determine the winner.

2. TIMING

Timing will start when both legs clear the ground. The maximum time allowed to scale the wall will be decided by the President of Jury and made known to participants before the competition starts.

All participants will be allowed an observation time of six minutes to prepare for their climb.

The duration of the climb will be left to the Chief Route Setter's discrepancy and will be made known to the participants.

3. TERMINATION OF CLIMB

A participant's attempt will be terminated by route judge should he/she:

- a) Exceed the permitted climb time;
- b) Touches or makes use of areas, holds or features demarcated by the route setter;
- c) Uses the side edges or the top edges of the wall for climbing;
- d) Once having started, touches the ground with any part of the body;
- e) Uses any artificial aid.

4. DISQUALIFICATION

Any undue delay by competitor may result in the immediate award of Yellow Card; any further delay shall result in his/her team's immediate disqualification.

A participant will be disqualified if :

- late for isolation zone reporting
- fails to return to the isolation after observing the route;
- Un-ropes while climbing
- Uses unapproved modification of equipment

Fails to be dressed in the competition attire provided by the organizers.

5. APPEAL

All appeals have to be made in writing within 30 minutes after the results are displayed and an appeals panel will handle it. A charge of $50 (cash) will be levied to discourage abuse of this right. The money will be refunded to the participant if his/her appeal is successful.

6. ATTIRE

All participants are required to wear the event T-shirt issued on the competition day at the Competitors Reporting Booth. Only 1 T-shirt per category registered will be issued.

7. REPORTING ON COMPETITION DAY

All participants must report at the designated time on the day of competition (details in competitor's information sheet). Participants who fail to report within the designated time will not be allowed to join in the competition.

Registration fees collected will not be refunded for failure to report at the designated time or no-show by the participant.

All participants must observe the Competition Rules.

8. PRIZES

Prizes will be awarded to the top 3 winners in the difficulty categories
(Under 18 Boys; Under 18 Girls;
Under 15 Boys; Under 15 Girls).

9. REGISTRATION

Registration can be made in person at any SAFRA Clubs. Payment can be made in cash, NETS, Visa or cheque upon registration at SAFRA Clubs.

All cheques are to be made payable to "SAFRA" and submitted with the registration forms duly filled (Personal Particulars and indemnity).

All registration forms, together with cheques if sent by mail must reach the following address before the registration closing date:

Participants' Coordinator
